

The Morrill Memorial & Harris Library, which serves the town of Strafford, is seeking a new director to oversee an institution that continues to play a key role in a vibrant community. The library is open for four days a week for 20 hours. The librarian's 25-hour position is structured to allow sufficient time to manage the regular operations of the library and for administration and planning. The ideal candidate will operate independently, possess the interpersonal skills to engage with a tight-knit community, and have the creativity and insight about the role of the library to inform and guide the board of trustees in making necessary changes to keep the library a vital institution. A full job description can be found at <http://www.straffordlibrary.org/about-us.php>

Candidates should be willing to work toward a Vermont Certificate of Public Librarianship if they are not otherwise credentialed. Salary will be based on experience. Please email a cover letter and resume by Oct. 7 to straftordvtlibrary@gmail.com with "Attention: Cindy Binzen" in the subject line or mail it to the attention of Cindy Binzen at Morrill Memorial & Harris Library, PO Box 110, Strafford, VT. 05072.
